List any materials you'd like the conference music distributor to have on hand.

List any published works, books, music, or CDs that we could include on a list for conference attendees. Include title, publisher and where it can be purchased.

All proposals will be reviewed by the PMTA Program committee. You will be contacted by January 15, 2010 as to whether your proposal can be included in this year's conference schedule. PMTA appreciates and applauds its members who volunteer to give these workshops and lecture-recitals. Please be aware that we do not have the funds to offer remuneration for these presentations, but we do waive the conference registration fee. If you have been selected to present at this conference, when you fill out your conference registration form, please mark "waived" next to the entry fee. You must, however, pay for all meals, hotel accommodations and travel; and you must send in your registration with meals checked by the registration deadline. Even if you take no meals you should still register so you will receive your name tag and conference folder. Thank you for your cooperation.
